

Add a Slideshow to a Post on Your Blog

1. Sign into Picasa Web Albums. Click to open one of your albums and view the pictures inside.

2. Go to the right side of the window. Click on "Link to this Album." Then click on "Embed Slideshow."

3. The "Create a portable slideshow" box opens.

From the drop down list, select "Large 400px." Check "Autoplay."

To "Embed slideshow", highlight and copy the "Embed" text as shown. Then click "Done."

Create a portable slideshow for your website, blog, Myspace, etc.

5. In the “Compose” Tab of the New Post box, enter a line of text at the top, enter several blank rows, and then type a second line of text. You can edit and change the text later. At this point you will simply place the slideshow between the rows of text. Type a Title for the post and Labels.

6. In the “Edit Html” Tab, insert your cursor between the two lines of text and paste the “Embed” text that you copied from Picasa Web Album. Click “Publish Post.”

7. Click “View Blog” to see your slideshow in your blog. You can go back to your Picasa Web Album and add or remove pictures whenever you wish.
